

Pizza sales dashboard

1. Downloaded the dataset.
2. Checked the dataset, it has 40k+ rows in it.
3. Checked the problem statement.
4. Opened Mysql workbench.
5. Downloaded MS SQL server manager
6. Go to options, select the connection management -> Keep trust server ticked
7. Create a database.
8. Right click on it and expand tasks -> Select import flat file -> Browse the file which is CSV.
9. Preview the data -> Modify the column type based on the requirement
10. Run the SQL queries based on the problem statement.
11. Remember to group by using the categorical column when you are using a categorical column and an aggregate function together.
12. Save the queries.
13. Open the Power BI Desktop and import the data from MS SQL Server.
14. Perform the transformations using power query.
15. Extract the month name, day using order_id column.
16. Create visuals and tailor them based on requirements.
17. Save everything.